Bill Mahomes has more than 30 years of experience as a public finance, real estate and transactional lawyer. He provides practical advice on public projects and public private partnerships (P3s) based on his experience serving on the board of directors of the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport and the Texas Turnpike Authority.

Bill has been involved in negotiating numerous contracts and public agreements between political bodies and their respective projects, including public hearings, professional selections and financing. He has also worked on negotiations involving public and private property matters, as well as matters among various public and private entities.

His broad base of clients includes the City of Dallas, Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, North Texas Tollway Authority, Texas Turnpike Authority and the Texas Water Development Board, as well as numerous regional and national underwriters.

Bill has served on numerous boards of directors throughout his career, including his current role as Chairman of the Board of Regents of Texas A&M University.
