Navigating the complexities of hiring can be challenging, especially when it comes to ensuring compliance with various legal standards. In this recorded webinar, Bracewell Labor & Employment partner Kelly Robreno Koster and associate Caroline Melo Chapman discuss the current legal landscape affecting hiring and how employers can comply with the latest laws while also building a diverse and productive workforce. Key topics that will be discussed include:

- Equal pay laws, including pay transparency obligations;
- Background checks;
- Ban-the-box laws;
- Drug testing; and
- Strategies to mitigate bias.
