

Jameela

Senior Associate

jameela.bond@bracewell.com

LONDON

+44 (0) 20 7448 4204

Jameela Bond's practice focuses on complex international disputes in the energy sector. She advises clients on the full dispute resolution cycle, including dispute avoidance, through litigation and arbitration. In particular, Jameela has considerable experience in international commercial arbitration conducted under the ICC, LCIA and UNCITRAL rules, and has also acted for states in investor-state arbitration.

Jameela has represented clients in a wide range of energy and project-related disputes including in connection with joint ventures, concession agreements and production sharing contracts. In particular, she has significant experience in major oil and gas disputes in West Africa.

Jameela is a Solicitor Advocate with rights of audience in the Senior (Civil) Courts of England and Wales.

Industries

Energy

Practices

International Arbitration

Litigation

International Energy Disputes

Credentials

Education

- College of Law, London, L.P.C., 2012, with distinction
- BPP Law School, Postgraduate Diploma in Law, 2011, with distinction

Bar Admissions

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales
- Solicitor Advocate of the Senior (Civil) Courts of England and Wales

The Legal 500 United Kingdom

- Dispute Resolution – International Arbitration, 2023 – 2025
- Dispute Resolution – Commercial Litigation: Premium, 2024 – 2025

UK Parliament

- Parliamentary Researcher and Aide

Resources

Decommissioning Oil and Gas Wells in the UK – High Court Delivers Important Judgment with Ramifications for M&A Deals and the Provision of Decommissioning Security

Article

Does Your Arbitration Agreement ‘Matter?’: Recent Guidance From the English Supreme Court

Blog Post

ExxonMobil Strikes Back: Energy Companies Take a More Proactive Approach to Activist ESG Shareholders

Blog Post

Publications & Speeches

- Challenges in Arbitration, LexisNexis Butterworths, November 2019