

Transaction Diligence & Support

Environmental risk and liability represent major concerns for our clients when assets or companies are bought or sold, or when our clients seek or offer financing. We apply a thorough understanding of the business — be it energy, chemicals, refining, heavy manufacturing, or technology — to provide practical, up-to-date insight and counsel. We approach transactions with a thorough technical knowledge of the subject at hand, finding creative approaches to controlling risk.

Areas of Focus

Environment, Lands and Resources