

Asset-Based Lending

We have a wealth of experience representing lenders and borrowers in asset-based lending transactions. We work with lenders and financial institutions in developing debt financing structures that will withstand the pressures of a restructuring or insolvency proceeding.

We represent banks, commercial finance companies, private investment funds and hedge funds in negotiating and structuring asset-based transactions across various industries, including, agriculture, automotive, energy and healthcare.

Areas of Focus

Finance