

Sarah

Associate

sarah.tahir@bracewell.com

DALLAS

+1.214.758.1047

Sarah Tahir represents airport systems, cities, counties, housing and tollway authorities, investment banks and related entities on public finance matters, including as bond counsel, disclosure counsel, issuer's counsel and underwriter's counsel.

During law school, Sarah was a legal intern at the International Finance Corporation, World Bank Group, in Washington, DC.

Industries

Finance

Healthcare

Infrastructure

Real Estate

Practices

Corporate & Securities

Public Finance

Bond Counsel

Economic Development

Disclosure Counsel

Underwriter's Counsel

Credentials

Education

- Arizona State University, J.D., 2016
- Oxford Institute of Legal Practice, B.A., 2012

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Languages

- Norwegian (fluent)
- Swahili (fluent)

BL Rankings

- Best Lawyers, Ones to Watch, Public Finance Law, 2024 – 2025

Resources

Cybersecurity Disclosure Considerations for Municipal Issuers

Article

Publications & Speeches

- "Cybersecurity Disclosure Considerations for Municipal Issuers," The Bond Buyer, March 14, 2024.
- "Spotlight on Public Finance: Cybersecurity and Climate Change: Considerations for Municipal Issuers," Bracewell Newsletter, Fall 2019.